

Putnam County Gator Club Announces 2025 Scholarship Recipients

SOURCE Putnam County Gator Club
May 31, 2025

Putnam County, Florida – The Putnam County Gator Club is proud to announce the recipients of its Putnam County Gator Club scholarships. We recognize outstanding academic achievement, leadership, and community service among Putnam County students who will be or are attending the University of Florida. The PCGC Scholarship program aims to support and empower Putnam County's brightest in achieving their academic and professional goals.

This year's recipients are:

- Reagan M. Blackmer, University of Florida
- Riley M. Blackmer, University of Florida
- Madalene Hodge, Palatka Jr./Sr. High School
- Kobe B. Jackson, University of Florida
- Caleb D. Jenkins, Q.I. Roberts Jr./Sr. High School
- Leslie B. Sims, University of Florida Law School

The Putnam County Gator Club Scholarship program is made possible through the generous support of our local club members, their families, and proceeds from our annual golf tournament. We are grateful for their commitment to our mission and look forward to seeing the impact our recipients will make.

For more information about the Putnam County Gator Club Scholarship program, our meeting schedule, and our recipients, please visit our club's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/168742525781/> and our website at putnamgators.com.